

Jeff Hnatiuk

President and Chief Executive Officer /Sport Manitoba

With over twenty years of sport leadership experience, Jeff Hnatiuk is the President and CEO of Sport Manitoba. Jeff oversees the delivery and development of sport in Manitoba, while serving as a leader on many provincial and national boards and task forces. Prior to his position as CEO and President, Jeff served as Executive Director for both Golf Manitoba and Hockey Manitoba.

Among his many accomplishments, Jeff has served on the Advisory Committee to the Faculty of Physical Education and Recreation Management at the University of Manitoba, sat on the Board of Directors for the 1999 World Junior Hockey Championships and the 1999 Pan American Games Legacy Committee, and was a member of the National Task Force commissioned for development of a National Alternate Dispute Resolution System for Sport in Canada and was part of the organizing committee for the 2002 North American Indigenous Games. Jeff also sits on the Board of Directors of KidSport Canada and the Canadian Sport Centre, Manitoba.

Jeff has a Bachelor of Recreation Studies from the University of Manitoba and an Administration degree from the University of Winnipeg.