

Wayne Trask
Chair /Rockmount Development Inc.

Wayne Trask's strong financial, administrative, marketing and management skills have awarded him past success as Chair and President of the 1999 Canada Winter Games and The Canada Games Centre in Corner Brook, Newfoundland and Labrador. Under his leadership, the 1999 Canada Winter games earned an unprecedented profit and was a resounding success.

Wayne previously acted as the Chair of the Steering Committee for the Canada Games 40th Anniversary and is currently Chair of the Finance and Audit Committee, Chair of the Hall of Honour, and member of the Marketing and Communications Committee.

In addition to his involvement with the Canada Games Council Board, Wayne is currently Chair of the Board of Directors of Rockmount Properties Inc., Rockmount Development Inc., and Rockmount Real Estate Co. Inc.