DIRECTOR OF SPORT & GAMES

Salary range: 61K to 70K (under review)

Canada Games Council is inviting applications for the position of Director of Sport & Games. Located in Ottawa, the Director will provide overall management of strategic leadership in the preparation and delivery of Games, as well as organizational and technical matters associated with all sports on the Canada Games program. As a member of the management team, the Director of Sport & Games will be responsible for implementation and on-going evaluation of the Council's enhanced Transfer of Knowledge Strategy for Hosts, Governments, National Sport Organizations, Chefs and the Canada Games Council. In addition, the Director will lead the bid development and selection process, as well as assume the role of Canada Games Council's Chief of Mission Operations on site during Games. The Director will be responsible for the development of related policies and provision of direction and guidance in relation to the Canada Games contribution to the success of Canadian Sport For Life (CS4L).

The ideal candidate will possess a Bachelor's Degree in a related field and have extensive and increasingly responsible professional experience in the sport community and Games environment, or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

As a strategic thinker and dedicated professional in the field of sport the successful candidate will have demonstrated experience working in a fast paced, multi-level, project-based environment with an emphasis on time lines and delivery. The Director of Sport and Games will, in partnership with the Host Societies, lead, monitor and evaluate progress in preparation and post Games evaluation. As a key liaison with the national/provincial/territorial sport and multi-sport organizations, as well as with Host Societies and provincial/territorial Chef de Mission's, the Director will possess a proven track record of building and maintaining positive relationships.

Additional requirements:

- Experience with planning and delivery of Games events
- Strong management and organizational skills
- Knowledge of the Canadian Sport system
- Excellent communication skills
- Proven ability to manage a team of highly effective managers
- Ability to communicate in French would be strong asset
- Willingness to travel

If you want to be part of our dynamic team and believe you are an excellent candidate for this position, please submit your resume including language capabilities along with a covering letter outlining your skills, knowledge and experience.
