

Congratulations to Meagan Michie

In the Summer of 2008 Meagan Michie, an Algonquin College Office Administration student, was a valuable member of the Canada Games Council staff and helped to advance some major projects. This summer the Canada Games Council team headed to Prince Edward Island for the 2009 Canada Games, Meagan was also there but in a very different capacity. This summer Meagan competed in Special Olympic Swimming events representing Team Ontario at the Games in PEI.

"Canada Games feels almost like the Olympics." explained Meagan "It is a great way to meet new friends and compete against other provinces and it is really fun!"

Meagan swam in five swimming events in PEI, achieved her best times and made finals in all five events.
